

NELSON MANDELA FREEDOM MARCH

Freedom at 70
COMES TO TYNESIDE JUNE 21st

GLASGOW TO LONDON 600 MILES

COMES TO TYNESIDE JUNE 21st

25 Nelson Mandela Freedom Marchers

Amongst the marchers will be former South African and Namibian political prisoners, including Indres Naidoo, who spent ten years imprisoned on Robben Island with Nelson Mandela, and Alan Brooks, Deputy Executive Secretary of the Anti-Apartheid Movement. The march will proceed down the country, arriving in London on 17 July — the eve of Nelson Mandela's 70th birthday.

Come and meet or join in the March anywhere along the route.
