

IS THIS REALLY MAJORITY RULE?

The British Government is poised to recognise the new regime in Southern Rhodesia. They claim that Smith has accepted majority rule. The Anti-Apartheid Movement says this is a lie – to recognise the ‘internal settlement’ is to sell out the people of Zimbabwe; it is to ally Britain with apartheid South Africa and it is tantamount to declaring war on the rest of Africa.

Both the ‘internal settlement’ and the recent ‘elections’ in Rhodesia were massive frauds – part of a huge confidence trick which is aimed at setting back the cause of freedom throughout Southern Africa.

The British people must mobilise as never before to stop any sell-out. Campaign for:

- no recognition of the ‘internal settlement’ regime
- no lifting of sanctions – in fact sanctions should be tightened and extended to include South Africa, the major sanctions breaker
- support for the Patriotic Front.
