TO OUR CUSTOMERS

Dear Mail Order Customer

Welcome to AA Enterprises' third catalogue of anti-apartheid goods and gifts and products from the front line states. We hope you will find plenty in it of interest to you and your family, friends and colleagues.

AA Enterprises is a workers' co-operative set up in June 1986 to support and raise funds for the British Anti-Apartheid Movement. We are part of the campaign to isolate apartheid South Africa through an international boycott. And we aim to support the front line states of Southern Africa – Angola, Botswana, Mozambique, Tanzania, Zambia and Zimbabwe – by promoting and marketing their products.

National opinion polls make it clear that the majority of people in Britain are in favour of anti-apartheid sanctions. AA Enterprises' own experience in its first year of trading certainly confirms the support that exists for alternative economic links with the Southern African front line states.

With your help, we look forward to now significantly increasing the financial support we can give to the Anti-Apartheid Movement for its vital campaigning work.

We are also expanding our trading links with Mozambique, Zimbabwe, Angola and the other front line states. We have added to our range of products based on the art of Malangatana Ngwenya and developed on a profit share basis with his own co-operative in Mozambique.

We are delighted to announce that Zimbabwe's excellent wine is again available in Britain through our catalogue and we are sure you will be interested in our new photographic exhibition of the country's collective co-operative movement.

We will soon be making some exciting announcements about trade with Angola – keep in touch for details.

And of course, we will continue to support the Anti-Apartheid Movement by promoting and marketing its fund-raising merchandise and publicising its campaigns. We hope that you too, if you are not already a member, will join the Anti-Apartheid Movement and become actively involved in the struggle for freedom in Southern Africa.

With best wishes,

INFORMATION AND CONTACTS

Support the Frontline States

The six Southern Africa front line states – Angola, Botswana, Mozambique, Tanzania, Zambia and Zimbabwe – form a political grouping in solidarity with the liberation movements of Namibia and South Africa.

The front line states have paid a high price for their stand. They are the targets of a vicious South African war, involving direct military attacks and invasion, economic sabotage and subversion, propaganda smears and deliberate disinformation. The Anti-Apartheid Movement campaigns in solidarity with the front line states through its call for anti-apartheid sanctions, publicity and information, support for material aid initiatives such as the non-aligned AFRICA Fund, and pressure on the British government. AA Enterprises aims to promote alternative trade and economic links with the front line states by selling their products.

Join the Anti-Apartheid Movement

The Anti-Apartheid Movement is the main organisation in Britain campaigning in solidarity with the Southern African freedom struggle and for the isolation of apartheid through mandatory, comprehensive international sanctions. It has over 200 local groups throughout Britain in-involved in a wide range of campaigning and educational activities. For details of how to join and what you can do, contact:

Solidarity with the ANC and SWAPO

The African National Congress (ANC) of South Africa is Africa's oldest liberation movement, founded in 1912. It unites South Africans from all parts of the country in the fight to destroy apartheid and for a new, non-racial South Africa based on the principles of democracy, equality and human dignity.

In 1959, the then president of the ANC Chief Albert Luthuli called for an international boycott of apartheid South Africa and its products. The appeal led to the worldwide campaign for sanctions and the formation of the Anti-Apartheid Movement.

For more information on the ANC and its policies, write to:

African National Congress
PO Box 38
28 Penton Street
London N1 9PR

SWAPO, the South West Africa People's Organisation, is the liberation movement of Namibia, illegally occupied by apartheid South Africa for more than 20 years in defiance of international law.

SWAPO, formed in 1960, fights for a free, independent and non-racial Namibia against the might of the South African armed forces. It unites the people of Namibia under the banner 'One Namibia, One Nation'.

SWAPO joins with the ANC in calling for the total isolation of apartheid South Africa through sanctions and an end to the illegal exploitation of Namibia's resources by British and other multinational companies. For more information on SWAPO and its policies, write to:
