REMEMBER, IN SOUTHERN AFRICA . . .

The Apartheid South African Regime:

- is preparing for all-out war in the region — it has attacked Mozambique, Zambia, Botswana. In 1981 it invaded Angola and still occupies part of the country. Most recently it made a murderous attack on Lesotho.
- is illegally occupying Namibia with over 100,000 troops and has sabotaged all efforts to bring genuine independence.
- denies the vote and other basic democratic and human rights to black people. Apartheid means grinding poverty and strict racial segregation for Africans. Africans have been made foreigners in their own country. All opposition is met with the most brutal repression.

But the people of Southern Africa, led by A.N.C. and S.W.A.P.O. are fighting back. They look to the Scottish and British people for support.

- Britain is
- the major foreign investor in South Africa
  - South Africa's third biggest trading partner
  - collaborating in the military and nuclear fields — despite the U.N. arms embargo.

Scotland also has many links through Investment, Trade, Sport and Culture. The Conference will discuss this collaboration and action against it.
