

National Workshop

Organised by the Anti-Apartheid Movement

- The economics of reconstruction and development – including the economy, labour relations, aid, investment and trade policies
- Environment – including local government, housing, tourism, ecology
- Education for reconstruction and development
- Health
- Human resource development – the potential for skill sharing
- Trade unions
- Women
- Multi-faith solidarity
- Educational linkages (academics, students etc)
- Local authorities
- Community based people to people solidarity

Towards a new agenda for international solidarity with Southern Africa

Building
people to people solidarity

Saturday 21 May 1994

11 – 5pm

Conway Hall

Red Lion Square • London WC1

(Holborn tube)

For further information contact:
John Hughes or Claire McMaster at the Anti-Apartheid Movement
13 Mandela St • London NW1 ODW or tel 071 387 7966.

National Workshop Programme

21 May 1994 • Conway Hall • Red Lion Square • London WC1

10.00	Registration and coffee
11.00 – 11.15	Opening remarks
11.15 – 11.45	Speaker: Perspectives for reconstruction and development in Southern Africa
11.45 – 1.15	Workshop session one
1.15 – 2.15	Lunch
2.15 – 2.45	Speaker: The potential for people to people solidarity
2.45 – 4.15	Workshop session two
4.15 – 5.20	Report-back and discussion (with panel)
5.20 – 5.30	Closing remarks

Registration form

Registration fee £5 – please fill in the form below

Name (please print) _____

Representing _____

Address _____

Postcode _____

● I enclose £5 registration fee (cheques made payable to AAM)

Please return to: Future Solidarity Workshop

Anti-Apartheid Movement • 13 Mandela St • London NW1 ODW (071) 387 7966

