

CALL TO ACTION!

SOUTH AFRICA: COUNTDOWN TO FREEDOM?

BLACK SOLIDARITY SEMINAR

Organised by the Black and Ethnic Minorities Committee of the Anti-Apartheid Movement

SATURDAY 3 MARCH 1990, 1.30pm - 6pm

At Brixton Village, St Matthews Community Centre, Brixton Hill, London SW2. Disabled access.

WITH

SIPHO PITAYANA (Nelson Mandela International Reception Committee)

ROSE MOTSEPE (African National Congress)

MATHEWS OLIPHANT (South African Congress of Trade Unions)

BERNIE GRANT MP (Executive Member, Anti-Apartheid Movement)

DO NEGOTIATIONS = SELL OUT?

IS DE KLERK TRYING TO SEPARATE MANDELA FROM THE ANC?

The Seminar will give black activists the opportunity to ask and debate these questions and many others about apartheid South Africa and the current stage of the liberation struggle. Do not miss this chance to find out about the implications of Namibian independence, and the release of Nelson Mandela, and most importantly, to discuss black solidarity with the people of South Africa who are fighting for their freedom.

Please fill in the registration form below and send it to the AAM with the registration fee. The cost is £4 waged (£5 on the day) and £2 unwaged/low waged. We advise that you register in advance to avoid disappointment on the day.

CALL TO ACTION! BLACK SOLIDARITY SEMINAR REGISTRATION FORM.

Name

Address

I enclose (£4/£2) registration fee. £..... donation. Please make cheques payable to the AAM.

Please send details of creche facilities (please tick)

I cannot come to the Seminar, but would like further information on the activities of the Black and Ethnic Minorities Committee of the Anti-Apartheid Movement.

Send the completed form and registration fee to BEM Committee, Anti-Apartheid Movement, 13 Mandela St, London NW1 0DW. Telephone 01 387 7966