LAWYERS AGAINST APARTHEID

Lawyers Against Apartheid was founded in December 1986; it aims to campaign to help bring the illegal system of apartheid to an end by focussing attention on the increasing abuse of the law under the apartheid system; exposing South Africa's flouting of international law and support anti-apartheid activists in Britain.

Lawyers Against Apartheid welcomes membership from all individuals and organisations sharing these aims:

LIKE TO KNOW MORE?

Come and hear lawyers from the African National Congress and SWAPO of Namibia on April 30th at Grays Inn, London in our launch public meeting JUSTICE IN SOUTHERN AFRICA? The meeting will also be addressed by Geoffrey Bindman, a solicitor recently returned from a fact-finding visit to South Africa as a member of the International Commission of Jurists delegation.
